POLICE IN PARADISE

SOME OF THE TROUBLES NOT ADVERTISED BY THE PROMOTION COMMITTEE.

Jose Mildorando, unctiously disreputable, was in police court this morning to explain how it was Officer Fred Weed and other watchful guardians of the law were in the habit of seeing him beg.

Jose was caught on his knees in the Paragon market, praying for meat; also has been observed, hat off and the other hand extended, whining to women for alms; likewise has been seen disfiguring the Sunday morning scene at the Catholic Cathedral, begging for dimes and tearing greedily to excite sympathy.

He's a crying beggar, but since he has been working a day or two at strikebreaking, Judge Andrade mercifully suspended sentence for a while.

A Portuguese woman this morning called to see Deputy Sheriff Rose in regard to her husband. She owns her own home, and her husband, it seems, has tired of her and wishes to spend his time in company with other women. The wife takes it quite philosophically and is willing that her husband love the rest of the world as long as he keeps on her premises.

But the stingy man insists on stabling his horses in her stables, wants to kill her chickens for his meals and has threatened to take away her sewing machine.

Instead of beating him over the head with a garden-rake, as he might deserve, the lady, being of a peaceful mind, takes her troubles to Charlie Rose who is something of an arbitrator in such delicate matters.

He has promised her to send for the husband and talk some sense into his selfish head.

Fred Keack was fined $10 this morning for whipping Pringle. Keack had had his fun and paid the price.

The case of Blackwell, George Carter's chauffeur, charged with violation of city ordinance regulating the operation of automobiles, was this morning continued for the TENTH time.

In re Atcherley, insane, the case this morning was continued till tomorrow. The devoted wife of the unfortunate desires to retain the services of some capable attorney.

STARTED PILIKIA

CHINESE AND JAPANESE ATHLETES DIDN'T LIKE REMARKS ATTRIBUTED TO DOUTHITT.

Some of the baseball teams scheduled to play at the new athletic park started to withdraw yesterday, on account of a statement attributed to Manager Douthitt, that the park was not for Chinese and Japanese. Indignation meetings were soon in progress and pilikia was in sight. Mr. Douthitt, however, was easily able to explain that he did not mean to make the statement quoted, and now all is sunshine again.

"Through a mistake that may have been mine," said Manager Douthitt, "I was quoted in The Star last night as saying that the new park was not for Chinese and Japanese. Of course, I never meant anything of the sort. Such a remark would be ridiculous. What I intended to say was that we had accommodations for all the town and wanted everyone to come.

"Situated as it is, in the oriental quarter, I thought the park might be regarded by some as exclusively for Japanese and Chinese players and spectators, and I wanted to say that we were bidding for all kinds of people. The mere fact that the very first games I have arranged for are between Japanese and Chinese teams shows, of course, without my saying anything more, that I never could have had any idea of saying the park was not for them."

However, what Mr. Douthitt wished to say was that Athletic park was intended for the exclusive use of Asiatics—or, Chinese and Japanese, as he expressed it. While it is recognized that they will form a large proportion of the patronage, people of other nationalities will be extended an equally cordial welcome.

A. V. Gear, the originator of the Athletic park idea, states in explanation of the position of the owners of the place that it is intended as an athletic resort for all nationalities. Being situated in the Palama district, it has been presumed and calculated upon all along that a large proportion of the patrons would be Chinese and Japanese.

Work is being pushed with all vigor at the park and the place will be in the finest of shape for the grand opening on Sunday next.

JACK SCULLY HAS HIS LITTLE SAY

Sporting Editor Star:—I wish through the medium of your valuable paper to deny in toto the statement of Jacob Tavares, known as Young Nelson, which appeared in this morning's Advertiser, and in which my name was mentioned.

In the first place, it is absurd on the face of it to suppose that a boxer of Young Nelson's caliber could by any stretch of the imagination be worth $200 to any promoter of boxing bouts, even if he had contracted to box a dozen different men instead of two.

I promised Young Nelson a lump sum of $100 to box Rafferty and Dixon and not only kept my word with him but threw in a fifteen-dollar bonus.

It is strange that Young Nelson should have reserved his roar till this late date, and it would be interesting if you could print the exact circumstances which have caused him to stir up an already settled matter, evidently with the idea of discrediting myself.

Yours, etc.,

JACK SCULLY.
